The third of the informal receptions given by the Mignonette Assembly was held in Loomis' Academy hall last evening. Between the regular order of dances a musical program was ren dered by the Second Regiment orchestra, Imperial Mandolin club and the Elm City quartet. About one hundred were in the grand march.

The annual masquerade ball of the German-American association was held in Harugari hall last evening and it proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever held by the popular association. The costumes were elegant and many of them being original and unique. The grand march was led by the floor committee.

says: The senate's confirmation of the nomination of H. H. Babcock for custom's collector at New Haven still hangs are. Congressman Pigott, who endorsed the nomination, thinks he has done everything he can do in the matter, and that Senator Platt does not seem to be in favor of it. The senator, it is understood, believes that the present collector should be allowed to serve

Frank G. Smith of this city was best man at the wedding in Meriden last night of his cousin, W. R. Smith, of W. R. Smith & Co., carpet dealers in that city, and Miss Bertha Grace Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lane, of Meriden. Wallace S. Ritter of this city and Ed Camp of Wallingford were among the ushers. Quite a number of New Haven guests were present, among them Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McQueen. Susan McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Hauff, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Smith and daughter, Mr. Nichols and sons, Mr. and Mrs. E. William Baldwin, Andrew G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark and Miss Blake, The groom is a son of Mr. J. Boardman Smith of this city. The wedding was one of the most brilliant social events of the season. The floral decorations were magnificent. Before the ceremony the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boardman Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Lane. A canopy was arranged from the street to the door. The bridal party walked between aisles of white ribbons that were held by the flower girls, the Misses Gertrude and May Lane, the pretty little twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Lane. The bride was gowned in white satin with duchess and point lace and pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lilles of the

The Ewen McIntyre Athletic Association The second private masquerade of the Ewen McIntyre Athletic association will be given at Veru hall this evening. A very pleasant time will undoubtedly be had by all who attend. The association issues invitations only those persons who are directly known to them. This guarantees a good time as it will be a gathering of young people all known to each other, A very pleasant program of dancing has been arranged, for which the music will be furnished by the Second Regiment orchestra. The committee on arrangements are John F. Hanly, Frank H. Maurer, Sydney G. Dixon, Georgi Baum and Herbert L. Bartlett,
